

Celebrate the wonders of Marine Protected Areas (known as MPAs) in central California. Just as parks on land are established to preserve and protect wildlife, MPAs help protect underwater marine resources like fish and kelp forests for future generations to enjoy.

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 2019
 EXHIBITS FROM 10:00AM - 3:00PM | WHALERS COVE

10:00am - 12:00pm

Daniel Williford, PORTS Interpreter, will demonstrate the ROV in Whalers Cove to observe what is underwater at this Marine Protected Area.

10:00am - 3:00pm

Displays and information from local organizations, including;
 Marine Mammal Center
 Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary
 Craig Noke - Marine Protected Areas
 Point Lobos Foundation
 Brent Allen Outside
 Bay Area Underwater Explorers (BAUE)

10:00am - 3:00pm

Mint Van, staffed by docents will have hand-held objects, pelts, and free coloring books. Amy Brandt, MPA Interpreter, will be available to answer questions about MPAs.

